CLEVELAND TAKES OVER COAL MINE NOW ASKS HELP

Wants State Mine Union Officials to Furnish Men to Dig Coal.

FUEL SHORTAGE IN OHIO IS GROWING MORE ACUTE

State Officials Believe Crisis
In Situation Will Come Monday.

Columbus, Dec. 6.—Cleveland city officials appealed to Ohio officials of the United Mine Workers organization here today for men to produce coal in a mine which the city is taking over at Salineville in order to supply the Cleveland water works with coal.

State officials of the miners organization are said to have advised Cleveland authorities that it was up to the miners to determine the amount of coal they would work. It is reported that Cleveland officials offered to pay whatever price was demanded in order to secure coal for the city.

A committee of Cleveland officials, it is said, will go to Sallenville to take the matter up with John Saxton, president of the sub-surface organization.

Monday is expected to be a busy day in the coal situation in Ohio. Several cities are practically out of coal, among them being Cleveland, Canton, Dayton, Youngstown and Toledo.

No further action was taken today.

by Governor Cox or miners and operators relative to a settlement for the state. Both operators and miners returned to their homes over Sunday, but will be ready to resume negotiations here Monday.

The Marion Steam Shovel works of Marion appealed to the state public utilities commission today for coal claiming that it is an essential industry because it is making steam shovels used in the stripping process of producing coal.

W. H. Augustus, president of the Cambridge Collieries company, one of the largest coal companies of the state, said he was willing to accept the governor's proposal.

It is generally believed the 25 percent increase will be acceptable to the Ohio miners.

Mayor Schranz of Canton has announced that if no agreement is reached between the operators and miners here, he will issue a call for volunteer miners to operate mines in Stark county. He believes the coal shortage in the county will be solved. The coal he announced, will be distributed for domestic consumption only.

At Sandusky and Port Clinton, along Lake Erie, a number of manufacturing plants have been closed. Confiscation of coal for the operation of the Sandusky light plant has been necessary for several days.

Theaters and motion picture houses in Sandusky have voluntarily agreed to extinguish their electric light signs one hour each night.

Two of four coke ovens at the National Tube company at Loraine were closed today on account of the coal shortage.

In a number of cities officials have taken steps preparatory to cutting local train service.

SCHOOLBOY IS MISSING.

“The ‘strategic’ status of the unseasonably early winter has been revealed over the country west of the Mississippi river for seven days, urgency pleas for fuel apparently had diminished today. Montana, Idaho and towns in Nebraska, Montana and western Kansas still were virtually without coal, however, and substitutes were at a premium.

In connection with the plan to operate Oklahoma mines with voluntary labor, martial law had been proclaimed in that state for the first time.

Governor Robertson placed six counties containing coal mines under martial law.

WEAK AND SICKLY

Parents Were Almost Hopeless,
But He Is Now Well
and Strong.

"Our little boy's health was so poor
we were afraid we were going to lose him. He is 10 years old, and has had weak lungs ever since he was eight months old, caused by pneumonia. We have been very careful with him and doctored him continually, but we had almost despaired of ever having a strong,
well boy.

"But since giving him Milks Emulsion,
all his trouble is gone, and he is in perfect health."—Mrs. G. W. Smiley, 20
Mar St., Dayton.

For restoring appetite, health and strength in sickly children, mothers will find Milks Emulsion the thing they have always sought. Most children like to take it, because it makes many emulsions and tonics; it really tastes good.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, discussing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in restoring and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made,
and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results,
your money will be promptly refunded.

MORE THAN USUALLY WARM

Sailors Declare the Gulf Stream Is Outdoing Itself at This Season,
for Some Reason.

Marine men blame the Gulf stream
for the summer weather prevailing along the Atlantic coast. They say the water of the Gulf stream is almost boiling.

In Norfolk, Va., the temperature was 86 degrees. A hundred miles out to sea just before the Gulf stream is reached the temperature was 101, according to information brought there by marine men. Within one day's run from Norfolk by water there was a difference of nearly 40 degrees in the temperature. It was so hot in the Gulf stream, marine men said, it was almost unbearable to remain on deck
during the day.

Vessels passing through the peculiar water during the day say the weather is hotter than they have ever experienced before. A difference in the temperature of the water dipped from the Gulf stream with buckets from ships with that of the ocean itself is the difference, marine men report, between moderately cool water and that warm enough almost to poach an egg.
The Gulf stream water is lighter than the remainder of the ocean and when first dipped foams and bubbles like water just on the point of boiling.

It was reported that an American destroyer would go out to the Gulf stream with a party of experts for the purpose of making observations for use by the government and to ascertain if reports brought in by merchant ships are authentic.

COULD FEEL FOR AFFLICTION

Man Had Not Forgotten How It Felt
to Be Deprived of the Blessing of Sight.

He looked as if he owned a bank.
And he was talking to a man who looked as if he owned two.

And while they confabbed in front of a hotel a wrinkled woman came up to them leading a wrinkled man. She was selling matches—5 cents a box, three for—

The one-bank man waved aside the matches, but put some money in the woman's hands, and asked her unlucky companion how he came to lose his sight.

The blind man said that he had never had any sight to lose. He was born that way.

The man of the two banks chipped in with a donation, then the couple moved on, the blind man, philosophically serene and the woman shrilling her slogan—"Matches! Five cents a box, three for—"

And the one-bank man said to the one who owned two:

"I had my eyes bandaged for a week once. Blindness is a tragic thing."

Which showed that, in his case anyhow, a little knowledge was not a dangerous thing.—Washington Star.

Dolls in Literature.

A London writer has recently introduced the subject of dolls in literature. Almost anyone, who will trouble to search his memory, can discover a doll somewhere between the covers of many a book which he has read. Beginning with a "slighting reference to them under the name of babies," in Sydney's "Arcadia," and noting the mention of a doll by Charlotte Bronte, this writer concludes that, until the nineteenth century, dolls
were neglected by English authors and that they appear more frequently in French than in English fiction. Dickens seems to have had more to say about dolls than any other English author; but the doll Nobby is an important personage in Mr. Wells'
"Peter and Joan," and the dolls' house
in "Tono-Bungay" contained 85 dolls, although with none of them does the reader become personally acquainted.

Jerry and Rosa, in "The Golden Age,"
are also remembered.

German Farming Methods.

Germany may have led the world in some branches of technical skill but her farming methods left much to be desired if the bitter contempt poured upon them by a Bunyip soldier can serve as a standard. Bunyip, Victoria, Australia, is proud of his knowledge of soil culture, and of 17 months spent as a prisoner of war at threepeace a day on a farm in Silesia, Germany,
made one of its finest citizens more convinced than ever that Bunyip is always best. When he returned to Australia and applied for a farm he was asked, as a joke, if he could give a reference from his previous employer. His reply would have been gall and wormwood to the Silesian.

United States Sex Statistics.

The census of 1910 showed 2,691,978
more males than females in the United States. In all but Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina and the District of Columbia, the males are in excess.
In all the world females are a little in excess. The reverse in America is evidently due to the excess in male immigration.

A Gift of Ever Increasing Worth, for
"The Longer You Play It,

A PRACTICAL gift, yet breathing refinement and elegance. A gift that all the family can enjoy, and a gift that will become of increasing worth.

For it is true of the Cheney alone that "The Longer
You Play It, the Sweeter it Grows." Within each Cheney cabinet are enshrined acoustic principles never before applied to tone reproduction—improvements
upon old methods which give to the Cheney, tones unrivalled in sweetness, beauty and richness.

Forest Cheney, musician, inventor and scientist, adapted the fundamental principles to tone reproduction which give the violin its sweetness and purity of tone and the pipe organ its rich fullness. He has achieved new heights—he has set his instrument in a class apart.

The Cheney gives piano records the very timbre of piano tones, keeps all of the parts of an orchestra record in perfect balance, maintains the purity and fullness of vocal records which characterized the original production. Needle scratch and mechanical noise are virtually eliminated.

The Cheney plays all records—it is a masterpiece. To really appreciate it, you must hear it.

BOY SCOUTS HERE HELP RED CROSS

Posters and Signs Boosting
Christmas Seals Posted
By Troop Members—
Scout Film Coming.

Boy Scouts today, most of them from Troop 3, assisted the Licking county chapter American Red Cross in putting up posters for the Christmas seal campaign. The boys entered into the work with the true scout spirit and the work was quickly done.

Negotiations are being carried on to secure the use of one of the few vacant store rooms downtown to be used as a headquarters for the collection of toys, clothing, etc., for the annual Christmas offering to the poor. As soon as the arrangements are complete an announcement will be made and the scouts will be instructed to go ahead with the collection of the articles.

Arrangements have been completed to bring to Newark the film taken of the Akron Boy Scout famous 2100 mile hike in motor trucks and this picture will be shown at the Auditorium theater on December 23 and 24. This picture is one of actual scout activities and will be enjoyed by every one who visits the theater on those days.

Troop No. 5.
Troop No. 5, which is the new troop of Boy Scouts in West Newark, held its first regular meeting last night at the West Side Church of Christ. Harry D. From appearances this troop bids fair to make the seven other troops of Newark hustle to keep ahead of them. They had present last night 16 boys.

Troop No. 6.
Troop 6 reports that it expects to put on a scout play in the near future. This play is one published by the national headquarters and it is said to be a good one as it will be put on with the help of the community. The boys expect to learn a great deal about nature at this time.

NAZARINE CHURCH BUYS OLD WELSH EDIFICE

The Church of the Nazarene has purchased the Welsh church on Elmwood avenue and will dedicate it Sunday, December 21st.

The church of the Nazarene is a comparatively new denomination in Newark, having been organized a year ago last July. While it is a new denomination it does not set forth any new doctrines, but is proclaiming the old time truths of regeneration and sanctification by faith as proclaimed by John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist church. In a statement today the pastor says there has been a great deal of wrong thinking concerning the church of the Nazarene, which is not at all fanatical. It believes in all the cardinal doctrines of salvation. It teaches the inspiration of the Bible; the virgin birth and divinity of Jesus Christ, his vicarious suffering on the cross by which alone it is possible for man to be saved. It teaches the eternal retribution of the wicked, the eternal bliss of the saints and the second coming of Jesus. It also teaches that sin still remains in the heart of a believing Christian and only through the sanctifying power of the Holy Ghost can man be freed from the carnal nature and live holy and free from sin in this present world. But it does not teach that "unknown tongues" is a sign of having received the Holy Ghost. The church of the Nazarene is opposed to all forms of worldliness such as dancing, card playing, picture shows, theaters, etc. It teaches that membership in and fellowship with worldly, ungodly organizations is detrimental to Christian experience. It is opposed to immodest, fashionable dress; and to all worldliness in the church, such as church suppers, entertainments, etc.

The church of the Nazarene was organized for the express purpose of spreading scriptural holiness as taught by John and Charles Wesley. Its doctrine is perfectly sane and practical, its pastor declares.

NEWARK W. C. T. U. CHAPTERS UNITE

Federation Is Formed To Carry On Program Out-
lines By State W. C. T. U.
—Officers Are Elected.

A federation of the W. C. T. U. organizations of the city was effected on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Metz, 20 North First street, the object of the federation being a co-operative program for better work along lines outlined by the state organization. Americanization and law enforcement will receive special attention. The federation is composed of 350 women of the city who belong to the three unions known as the Evelyn Graham (central), Isabel Miller (east), and Frances Willard (west).

Miss Emily Porter, representing the work of the Elizabeth Rescue home of Columbus, was the speaker of the afternoon. The federation will meet once in three months and a speaker or a program will be provided for each meeting. All of these meetings will be open to the public. A plan to celebrate January 16 in a fitting manner was discussed and endorsed.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Jennie E. Mitchell; vice president, Mrs. Will O'Bannon; corresponding and recording secretary, Mrs. Edna Shrimpton; treasurer, Mrs. Laura Beaumont.

BURKE GOLF PEOPLE ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

One hundred and thirty-five guests, employees and their families, were present at the Burke Golf factory stunt night held last night at the Y. M. C. A. The minstrel show was the opening number on their program and everybody in the factory from the office boy to president was "roasted" by the minstrel men. The premier end-men, Mullen and Broome, were roundly applauded time after time and many a sore "laugh muscle" today will be charged to their wit. Canfield pivoted the crew admirably. Mr. Young gave a fine reading and Mr. Burgess sang "Father." Miss Eanton's number on the piano was very well received. Little Miss Reiger and Little Miss Sproule gave recitations.

Despite the fact that the scorer and the umpire were married men they were unable by foul or fair means to swing the baseball game in favor of the married men's team. The single men played like wild to capture the battle and the thing that saved their hides was the lucky lightning triple play in the last inning when with two on base Cullison hit a high fly that landed in Keck's mit on third. The base runners were sure of a safe hit and rounded the bases to score but it all went for naught when the ball after being caught went back to the bases, catching both base runners. The final score was: Single men 19, Married men 15. The winners were awarded each a prize. Canfield got a rattle, Broome a tin train, Elliot a fish pond, Brelsford a horn, and so on down the line.

Mr. Wobbeke presided over the service lunch.

Kuster's jazz trio tingled the ears of the guests during the entire evening.

Paris, Friday, Dec. 6.—With bowed head and with face of infinite sadness, a modestly dressed old lady was seen walking through Tuilerie gardens today.

As she walked she would stop to pick autumn flowers, seared and blighted by the cold, but no more faded than her cheeks.

Passersby, seeing her and knowing the regulations of the park, expected some policeman to admonish her, but she passed on, followed by a single maid, unchecked by the uniformed representative of the law.

The once proud Empress Eugenie who bowed beneath the weight of 32 winters, thus plucked withered flowers from a garden that was once hers. She was revisiting a scene poignant by reviving all the happiness, sorrow and terror, which came to her during the years she was the chief jewel of the old palatial mansion.

Now Open For Business

CARLILE'S--Newark's New Quality-Furniture
store opened its doors today to the general public in the former Gleichauf location.

This new store is now completely remodeled and refitted with new fixtures throughout and restocked with clean, crisp, new merchandise. Its association with the Carlile Stores of Central Ohio made it possible to secure the greater portion of its new stock from the warehouses of this great chain of stores.

Most of this furniture was bought many months ago, before the big price advances. These price advantages go to the Newark Store, providing the means whereby the people of this community may enjoy owning real quality furniture at moderate prices.

It will be the policy of this institution to give Newark an up-to-the-minute, modern store where dependable, quality-furniture, equal to the best in our largest cities, may be obtained. Your dealings with us will immediately establish your confidence in our policies.

This big, new store will be under the personal management of Mr. Frederick Carlile, who will make his home in Newark. The opening of this store is rather coincident, as it is practically the same location where Mr. Carlile's grandfather started in the furniture business at the close of the Civil War.

With the opening of our doors today, goes our earnest invitation to everybody in Newark and Licking County to visit us. Make this store your headquarters, the place to meet your friends, to wait for cars or any other service we may render.

Your interest to review our immense stock will neither oblige you or result in later aggressiveness from us. Just feel at home and permit us to serve you in every way we can.

Winter is the critical period of the year for people in straitened circumstances. In ordinary times the season brings a great deal of suffering. Money is needed for warm clothing and fuel, supplies cost more and are less abundant. The stoppage of farm and construction work releases many seasonal employees. THE POOR YE HAVE ALWAYS WITH YOU.

Winter is the critical period of the year for people in straitened circumstances. In ordinary times the season brings a great deal of suffering. Money is needed for warm clothing and fuel, supplies cost more and are less abundant. The stoppage of farm and construction work releases many seasonal employees. In cold latitudes many suffer from poorly heated houses. Multitudes long for the return of the sun, and the end of a season which they so poorly equipped to endure.

This year work has been far more abundant than ever before. Few people need have been idle. Still there never comes a time when poverty does not exist. Many people always suffer from sickness and accidents and other misfortunes. They have had to meet the extreme cost of living, and at the same time, have had only partial wages to offset it. Many industrious women have shiftless husbands, and must support a family of children.

Kind hearted people should not imagine that no call exists this year for charity. They should look about their neighborhoods and ask if there are any worthy people in Newark who need the helping hand.

Charity is best distributed when people take a personal interest in those who have had misfortune. Giving assistance to strangers is commonly not wise. People who have no acquaintances and friends to help them, should seek assistance from some organization that will look them up and assure themselves that they are entitled to help.

But people who represent organizations in charity work should not lose the feeling of personal sympathy. They should try not merely to hand out society funds in a mechanical way, but to offer friendship and good counsel.

When the Reds are jailed everyone is well satisfied, and when after a short period of free board the Reds are released, they also are well satisfied.

Having carefully watched the work of the football team the past fall, many people feel that they are fully qualified to talk about modern education.

It isn't necessary to build any automobile race tracks, as the speeders prefer the public streets, particularly near the center of crowded towns.

One recent incident of the work of the American Legion was the stopping of a German play at Newark, N. J. All over the country the Legion is fighting Red menace. It will find plenty of work to do along many such lines.

As respects German plays, as long as German is permitted to be taught in schools, some plays in that language will no doubt be presented. The majority of those usually given are cleverly concealed propaganda and such performances need careful restriction.

This country has long needed some active force working for patriotic ideals. The soldiers of the civil war supplied that force for many years. The task is far too great for those who are left. There has been too much "Let George do it" in American patriotism. The American Legion promises to supply a positive energy that has long been needed.

On the Scarcity of Paper for Newspapers

BY KING W. LARDNER.

To the Editor of the Advocate:

From everywhere comes the cry save white paper and in my letter last wk. I all ready mentioned about the props. of all the big newspapers in the country held a meeting in N. Y. City and discuss the shortage and promised they wouldn't use no more of it then was necessary but from all as I can see the papers is still coming out daily and Sun, as big as life and all the paper they been saving wouldn't make a night gown for a cigarette and a outsider might think they had give their promise as a practical joke and without no intentions of carrying them out. But a friend of mine that knows some of the big editors personally claims they would be tickled to death to live up to the agreement only they don't have no idea in regards to how to go at it in other words they don't know what they could leave out of the papers without the subscribers getting sore.

Maybe the serial editor of this paper is in the same pretty pass and would welcome a few suggestions from a person like I who has give the matter a good deal of thought and have got my finger on the public pulse at all times you might say.

In the 1st. place gents I would cut out the news from foreign countries. They's a paper laying here along side of me which has got a 1-2 a col. on Page 1 about Egypt being give a constitution and another 1-2 a col. about 11 5million gals. of whiskey being released from bondage and throwed on the market in England. Well if the item about Egypt had of been left out the most of us would of thought that Egypt always did have a constitution but even the few that knowed better could of stood it a few more months to go on thinking Egypt didn't have no constitution at least till the white paper shortages is over. As for the other item it is like rubbing salt in a raw wound and if the papers wants to spend a 1-2 col. lacerating their readers on a exposed nerve why they can holler their heads off about the paper famine and not get no sympathy from thinking men.

Ignorance is Sometimes Bliss
I don't know of no case where printing the news from across the old pond ever done any good where as they's plenty of times it has caused a lot of trouble like back in 1914 for inst. when the paper all come out it was the Belgians had started a big war and all the big Europe countries was messed up in it and they kept printing about it till finely we got into it our sofs where as if the news had of been suppressed in the 1st. place we wouldn't of knew they was a war or where to go to get into it. And if we hadn't of got into it I could of kept it a secret about having 4 vertical children and 2 flat feet.

2. You can pick up the paper every day and find where President Wilson is mentioned in it about a average of 10 times. Well it looks to me like most of your subscribers knows by this time that President Wilson's name is Wilson and they's no sense following up the word President with the word Wilson every time you get to mention him and as they's suppose to be 1200 words

When a Hudson avenue lady brought home a leg of lamb from market the other morning she relieved her surcharged feelings by commenting spicily and at length to her husband about the exorbitant price she had to pay for it, comparing it dramatically with its cost in the good old days before Mr. Hohenzollern went hog wild. Her diatribe evidently made a deep impression on her husband for that night at dinner he solicitously asked a guest, "Mrs. T., won't you have another eighteen cents' worth of lamb?"

Smile!
Though all about me troubles throng
That I cannot get rid of,
Yet I'll be cheerful just as long
As my wife's not a widow.

Diplomacy Failed.
Aunt Caline says—Last nite I an Gran'ma Podnose went over to see Etta Lott, which Etta tried to save some meet which were a mite turned, by eating 'em. Her three little children was there an' offle polite they was. They kep ainsisting Gran'ma should take a mite cheer, a-telling her it was more comfortable an' at last Gran'ma says, "Why should I take a mite cheer, Tommy?" she says, "I'm verry comfortable in this here one," says she. "Yes, ma'am," says Tommy. "I expect you an," he says, "but a little kiddy an't," an' she were there first," he says.

Resist the Small Beginnings.
Mr. McAdoo says that some of the coal operators have been making as high as 2,000 per cent. lately and it does not mean, with our firm conviction that money is not all that it was, were engaged in marketing a product essential to the health, comfort and very life itself of millions of people, we would be satisfied with 1,500.—Ohio State Journal.

But if one should yield to the first small downward step of 1,500, it would be only a matter of time till one would be worshipping Mammon with the best of them, if there are any best.

Mixed Chorus Will Sing at Memorial

Albert T. Atwell and Edgar W. Bell, tenors, and S. Levor, director. During the services the chorus will sing "Unfold Ye Portals," by Gunod, "Prayer for St. Helena," by Fawcett, "The Silent Land," by Little, "God So Loved the World," (from the Crucifixion) by Stainer.

The opening service will be conducted by Exalted Ruler Mandel Brashner, and Rev. Carlos H. Hanks will deliver the invocation. The eulogy will be delivered by Atty. James Schaller and the memorial address by Randolph W. Walton, of Columbus.

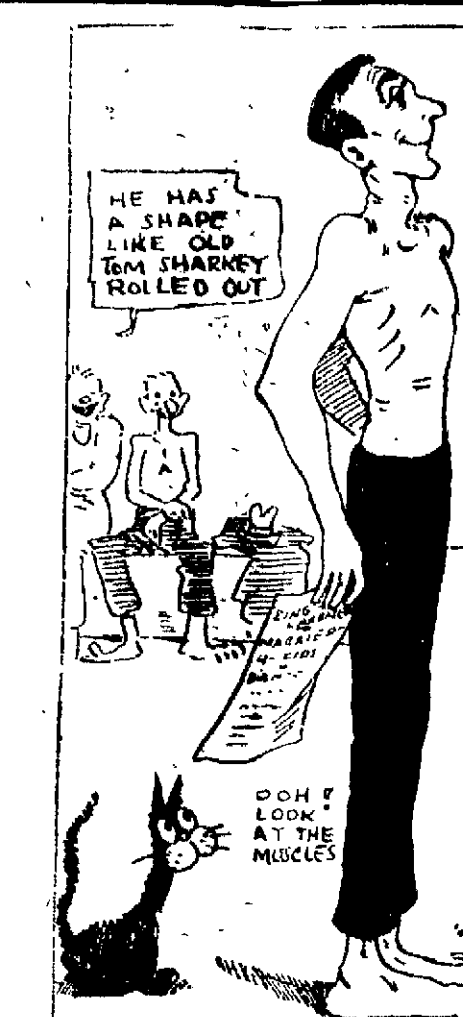

MANY CHILDREN'S DISEASES
are the result of badly kept mouths and decayed teeth. Don't wait until decay sets in. Begin to care for the child's teeth as soon as they appear. Look for the dark spots in and between the teeth. These spots indicate decay. If you have the child taken care of before they ache, the filling will be painless and the expense very trifling.

Cure of the first teeth is important. It insures Good, Sound and Straight Permanent teeth, and is the first step toward health and the prevention of disease.

Take the first step by bringing the youngster in today.

3. Cut out the death notices. When a man dies their family usually finds out about it without looking in a paper and as for his friends why I don't know of nobody that reads the death notices every day to find out if any of their friends has died on them, but if they got a friend that they think they's any chance of him dying on short notice why they will give his house a ring a couple of times a day and say

"Of course, if you feel that way about it," she began quietly.

He reached across the table and seized her hand, touching it penitently to his lips.

Keitha, forgive me. I spoke like a cad. It's my beastly temper—yes, I have one—only you never had an opportunity to meet it before. Lucky for me, or you'd never have married me if you hadn't seen me on my good behavior," he laughed.

"We—we—don't seem to know very much about each other, do we?" asked Keitha pathetically.

"You're dead right we don't," he agreed, "But it's going to be great fun learning."

Keitha was skeptical. Her eyes strayed out into the garden speculatively and she made no reply.

Bennett laughed softly.

"Not so sure, are you, Keitha? Well, let me tell you something; to my mind there is no better sport than a man or woman who marries on inflated impulse and takes a chance on what he or she will discover later."

"Is that what you did?" queried Keitha.

"Well, we both took a chance, didn't we?" he cried. "We knew nothing about each other except that we were crazy about each other. Isn't that straight?"

"Yes," Keitha's reply was scarcely more than a whisper, "We were very foolish."

Captain Bennett raised his brows.

"Think so? I'd say we were very adventurous. It isn't everybody who can make marriage less commonplace by marrying first and getting acquainted afterward. Instead of wondering where the deuce my clean shirts are and how I can invent an excuse for an evening at the club, as I should have ordinarily been doing about this time of our married career, I am now wondering what is 80 and 80 still alive or dead, or neutral. People that dies suddenly with or without help usually eats up a couple of paragraphs in the news section so all and all the mortician col. could be cut out badly and everybody have just as good a time.

A Suggestion For Comics.
4. Pretty near every paper now days has got a page or 2 of comical pictures that they call them strips which is suppose to make their peal to the reader's risibles and cheer them up. The strips the way they have got them now is divided up in panels usually 4 or 6 of them in 1 strip. But as far as I can see all the cackles is crammed into the last panel so why not cut out the other 3 or 4 and just leave the comical one where Pat beans Able with a crow bar and says Bam.

5. Finely gents I would cut out the advertising cols. You can't never make me believe that a person don't know when they see something without waiting till they see it in the ads. Or you can't make me believe that when I need a certain thing the ads is going to make me buy something else. For inst. what do I do when I need a hair cut why I go to a barber shop and make my wants known either by word or token to the nearest vacant barber and they won't no amt. of advertising make me go in a animal store and buy a pet wolf for my children instead of go in a barber shop and buy a hair cut for myself. Or take when a female subscriber needs a new shoe why her toes knows without her seeing the word mentioned in the advertising cols. and if she is a stranger in the city why she can find out where to get one by walking up to a policeman and saying where can I get a new shoe. Or if it's a pt. of gin, she wants instead of a shoe why she can substitute the word pt. of gin for the word shoe and say "Why can't I get a pt. of gin."

The advertising cols. crowds more live news such as "Jack Dempsey took a foot bath last night" than any other feature in a newspaper and personally I have penned many a comical line that never seen print because it had to make way for a eulogy for somebody's embalming fluid that nobody will ever know if all they claim for it is true or not.

Cut out the ads gents and all so the other items which I have mentioned and 1st thing you know people will be throwing white paper around like it was 200 proof Scotch.

The Monday Talks has issued an invitation to the women of the city to attend a lecture on South America to be given by Mrs. Blackford of Columbus at the Trinity Parish house, Monday, December 3, at 2 o'clock.

The Costume Concert given at the Second Presbyterian church on Thursday evening was greeted with a capacity house. From the entrance of Miss King in her reading of Francois Villon's poem, "Where Are the Shows of Yesterday?" the procession of quaintly garbed men and women and the singing of the old songs from Long, Long Ago to "Auld Lang Syne," the audience was in rounds of applause. Too varied and too excellent to be spoken of separately, the unique setting of genuine old dresses, taken from their silver papers in long neglected attics, with the faint odor of lavender in the old lace, the love letters and faded flowers—the quaint old bonnets and century-old melodion still sweet to the ear, under the touch of deft fingers, combined to make the most pathetic, lovely appeal to the memory and affections.

Miss Florence King and her assistants made a definite and intelligent effort in the line of community singing by the community and were met with an understanding so sympathetic and hearty that they must have felt repaid a thousand fold although the concert was given free.

The costumes used, with two exceptions, were genuine, old-fashioned gowns dating 1830 to 1870, and each one with a history that should have been told.

Assisting Miss King were the well known singers: Mesdames Miller, Best, Weld, Tucker, Suter, King, Symons, Peck, and Oxley, Misses Carl, Hagmiller, Barton, Frances Barton, Owens, Miller, Ashbrook, Lloyd, Watkins, McClure, Hamilton, Messrs. Kemp, Warthen, Guerin, Handenschield, Horner and Horton.

Everyday Etiquette

"I am a single woman, living with two other women friends. I often have men callers and all of them are smokers. We did it the proper thing for me to keep cigarettes or other form of tobacco for them to use when they call, as I have no objection to their smoking while calling," asked Naomi.

"I would not advise it." If a woman furnishes tea or cakes or homemade candy to her men callers she has done all that hospitality requires," replied older friend.

Care of the Hair in Winter.
The hair of the head must have time to rest, as must every part of your body, and the most luxuriant head of hair will begin to show signs of its resting period during the winter. There will be a lack of luster and sheen and the hair will look dead and lifeless.

The woman who values her good looks will do well, therefore, to give her hair special attention during the coming winter. It will be found surprising how readily the average head will respond to a little judicious treatment. Inside of ten days the hair will cease to fall out and, within a month, its soft fineness and luster will return.

hair and helps to keep the hair free from dandruff.

The hair should be aired in the sunlight every day if possible. Open the window of your bedroom, let down your hair and shake it well. Rub the scalp with the tips of the fingers and then take the ends of the hair and shake them loosely. If this can be done in the sunlight so much the better.

At night, take the hair down and brush it thoroughly and apply the following tonic. Four ounces of cognac and one ounce of castor oil. Shake well before using. The scalp should be massaged with a gentle, but firm pressure for fifteen minutes after the tonic is applied.

Values of Precious Stones.

Emeralds ranked with rubies and sapphires as the most costly gems of the ancient world. Then diamonds were worn in a rough state. The art of cutting the precious white stone was not discovered until the fifteenth century, when the flashing brilliance of the diamond was brought to light. Emeralds are still fashionable. They are rare, and good ones are becoming rarer. Carat for carat they are as valuable as diamonds.

Not every storage battery that is called "bone dry" is really shipped and stored in bone-dry condition.

Some have solution put in at the factory, and poured out again before shipment.

Some are shipped with plates dry, and insulation wet.

These batteries are not bone dry.

ing when the onrushing herd of cattle, driven in their wild stampede by the fierce Texas northers, overtook the gallant pair.

Norman Dawn was selected to film "Lasca," with Edith Roberts in the title role; Frank Mayo as her lover; Arthur Jashine as her brother; Viola Harry as the girl from the North and Lloyd Whitlock in the heavy role. The big scene in the play is the mad stampede of the cattle.

"The Miracle Man." As a study in genuine human beings, as an exhibition of the instinctive triumphs of the better nature when that better nature has a chance, as a perfect fabric of life as it is lived—alternately funny as a Chaplin and pathetic as a Werfield scene—and as an adroitly constructed drama, rising

"Nation" bettered its original, "The Clansman."

In both cases there was, originally, a wealth of fact, simple humanity and power, but in both cases the window of the camera has shown these in actual life, moving through vaster fields, and their fact and the power has been multiplied by camera magic as though by a microscope.

Tom Burke finds a particularly easy graft by exploiting a fake Chinatown to visitors in the metropolis. Rosa, his girl, suffers the arrowy slings of bruising fortune at the hands of a dope-tender—for a nice consideration of practical pity. The Frog, who can do a neat dislocation stunt from neck to toes, is a horrible cripple—until the suckers are gone, when he snaps his bones and sneezes into their right places and prepares to enjoy the results of his disjuncting performance.

around nothing less significant and important than a pink chemise on which is inscribed the phrase, "Mabel From Garry." In moment of sentimental exaltation, Garry gave Mabel the chemise, and foolishly inscribed it. Now his sin has come back to plague him. He has just married a sweet and innocent, but jealous girl and is spending his honeymoon at the country home of a friend. Among the guests is the beautiful Mabel of the chemise and the naughty present is with her. There are other ladies in the house who once had sentimental regard for Garry and who think it their duty to insult as much annoyance as they can into the first days of his married life. The chemise is a terrible weapon, and it seems likely that Mabel and her friends will use it. It therefore becomes essential to Garry's happiness that he recover the troublesome garfrom climax to climax and never missing a telling point, I do not recall that the silver screen has ever offered anything any better than this, and few pieces as good.

Judging simply as a composition, true both to the cynos of and the facts of existence, "The Miracle Man" stands alongside of the previously incomparable Griffith tapestry, "Broken Blossoms." In a year and a half the screen has not only failed to furnish their equals, but nothing which in any way compares with them.

Of course Mr. Tucker had George M. Cohan's shrewd, kindly, highly successful play of the same name, and Mr. Cohan, in his turn, had Frank Packard's fine original story as the source of his inspiration. But "The Miracle Man" on the screen betters its double original even as "The Birth of

"Up in Mabel's Room." One of the gayest theatrical events of the season is promised in the forthcoming production of "Up in Mabel's Room," the sensational New York farce success which A. H. Woods will present at the Auditorium—Thursday, December 11 for an engagement of one night only.

"Up in Mabel's Room" comes to the Auditorium theater direct from the Biltmore theater, New York, where for months it was the most conspicuous comedy hit of the season. It is a farce in three acts by William Gibson and Otto Harbach and is described as a frivolous farce of feminine follies. The plot, in this instance revolves

The production is an elaborate one, and not one of its least features is its revelation of beautiful gowns and lingerie. It is a carefully selected company. Seats ready Tuesday morning. LESSONS IN OPTOMETRY BY O. P. COOK

LESSON TEN.

What is the effect of correcting short-sightedness or "myopia"? The patient's distant vision is improved much or little, depending upon the extent to which he was myopic. Then correcting myopia ought to cause a person to enjoy life more?

Unquestionably, as with the glasses he can see things that before were beyond his range of vision.

What is "hypermetropia"? Far-sightedness, the opposite of near-sightedness. Near-sight is caused by a too-long eyeball. Far-sight is the result of the eyeball being too short. A far-sighted person sees things like a camera, out of focus, unless the muscles of the eyes are able to overcome the defect.

If the eyes overcome far-sight, what is the result? The muscles of the eyes are put to a tremendous strain, which often disturbs the nervous equilibrium of the patient.

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

From the Play by GEORGE M. COHAN, Based on the Story by FRANK L. PACKARD

THE best of life and the worst—in a story so great it couldn't be told in words,

From the reek of New York's underworld to a sleepy New England village, come four crooks, prowling for "easy pickings." The "Dope", a weasel of Chinatown; the "Frog", a counterfeit cripple; Tom Burke, a "Confidence King"; and red-lipped Rose, as fair of form as her heart is black. Their intended prey—a simple old man and the "boobs" who think he can heal them by faith. . . . Then the miracle! Not such a miracle after all when you know the human heart.

"The Miracle Man" is calling you. Come!

13.75; heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers
$14@15.50; pigs $13.50@13.75.
Calves: Receipts 100; market steady;
top $2 1/2.
Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Dec. 6.—Fresh declines in the price of corn took place today owing chiefly to the fact that the market
was without any aggressive support.
Opening prices which ranged from a quarter to seven-eighths lower, with January $1.38 and May $1.32 1-4 were followed by a slight rally but then by another sag.
Oats eased down with corn. After opening unchanged to 3-8@1-2 lower, including May at 75 3-8 to 75c, the market showed a disposition to weaken further.
Down turns in the value of hogs and grains had a bearish effect on provisions.
Selling, though, was only of a scattered sort.

A correctly designed and fitted corset efficiency, headache, backache, and countless ills that too often end seri-

care in selecting her corset.

AMUSEMENTS

operetta "Sunshine" has placed in the score a number of melodies that should appeal to lovers of good music.
Throughout the entire two acts and three scenes of "Sunshine," the music is of such a nature that it compels applause from the most blasé theatergoers. Twenty big song hits are to be heard, each and every one constituting a musical gem. The fact of the music being high class, it has been necessary to secure a caste of special musical training and this season Mr.
Carle, the bright, particular staff, has surrounded himself with such artists as Caroline Andrews, late prima donna
of the Chicago Grand Opera company, David Quixano, the well-known tenor;
who has appeared in the better class of musical shows, Marfan Baker, a contralto who has toured the country in concert work and others of equal merit. In order to give the production a proper presentation, Mr. Carle has with him a special symphony orchestra, numbering 15 trained musicians, which assures the proper realization of the many tuneful melodies. The locale of "Sunshine" is laid in southern Italy. This wonderful feature will have three showings Sunday, 4:30, 7

and 9 p. m., and on the other days, twice in the afternoon and the same at night.

ALHAMBRA
Bonds of Love.
Wealth, and its power to foster deception in family relationships, is the unseen motive behind the new Goldwyn picture, "Bonds of Love," in which Pauline Frederick is being presented at the Alhambra theater. This underlying fact is not revealed until the end of the story, but on it the story rests.
Early in the life of Daniel Cabot's first wife, she had been in love with an attorney, Barry Sullivan, capiti-ally played by Charles Clary. But her parents had forced her to marry a man
she didn't love. Subsequently, her lover acquired a large practice, and the relationship which her marriage
thwarted, was assumed clandestinely.
After her death, however, her husband married again, and it was the second wife who discovered her predecessor's infidelity. But the second Mrs. Cabot, loving her step-child, refused to divulge

the secret she had uncovered.
Nevertheless, her husband found out the truth in his own way. Moreover, he learned of his present wife's attempt to conceal her predecessor's shortcomings from him. The shock destroyed the halo which he had erected about the first Mrs. Cabot and placed it above
the head of her successor.
The last screenings are seen tonight.

War Veterans With Fairbanks.
Though Douglas Fairbanks' picture,
"His Majesty, the American," which is to play at the Alhambra Wednesday and Thursday, is as peaceful a film as the lively Douglas can make, he was materially assisted in making it by a lot of Uncle Sam's fighters.

The director of the picture is Corporal Joseph Henaberry, this being his first motion picture work since his return from the Army.

The camera staff is under the supervision of Lieut. Victor Fleming, late of the United States Signal Corps and who incidentally went to France with President Wilson on board of the Steamship "George Washington," on the President's first trip over, in charge of the Government's photographers.

Billy Shay, who assisted in the editing of the film, received military decorations in France.

The Midnight Patrol. Select
Pictures' great special attraction produced by Thomas H. Ince, is presented at the Alhambra theater on Monday and Tuesday moving picture patrons of this city will see one of the most thrilling and sensational Chinese underworld stories ever produced on the screen.

"The Midnight Patrol" is a vivid motion picture star, was in San Franisco filming his latest picture, "The Speed Maniac," which is to open at Gem theater next Monday he received the following letter, which appears to indicate that the young woman who wrote it knows the way to a man's heart.

"Dear Mr. Mix: No doubt you get thousands of requests for photographs married. Besides this picture there will be rendered a special musical concert by the Hawke musical company.
All next week the Zarrow National Musical company will hold the boards.

GRAND.
This afternoon and evening, Manager Book is offering an especially high

story of Chinese life in a western metropolis. Wu Fang, a wily Chinese, rules like a czar over the vice and lawlessness in his district while Jim Murdock, a corrupt political boss, shares with him the infamous profits derived from the gambling halls, opium dens
and brothels.

About this time Murdock and Wu Fang are expecting a shipment of opium.
In order to safeguard its arrival they tell Shannon that they are holding Fatty O'Connell, a young lady whom Shannon admires, captive in Wu Fang's den and that she will be harmed
unless Shannon keeps out of the way
until the shipment of opium is unloaded. Torrence believes that duty comes first, however, and leads a raid on Wu Fang's underground den. He is assisted by "Chink" Ross, a white man who has been thrown down by Wu Fang.

Current Events also Pathe News will be shown.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED Free Proof To You

If I want your name and address so I can send you a free trial treatment, I want you just to try this treatment—that's all—just try it. That's my only request.

I've been in the Retail Drug Business for 30 years. I am President of the Indiana State Board of Pharmacy and President of the Retail Druggists' Association. Nearly everyone in Fort Wayne knows me and knows about my successful treatment. Over twelve thousand five hundred men, women and children outside of Fort Wayne have, according to their own statements, been cured by this treatment since I first made this offer public.

If you have eczema, look, don't flinch, better never mind how bad—my treatment has cured the worst cases I ever saw—give me a chance to prove my claim.

OHIO ADVENTIST HEAD WILL SPEAK SUNDAY

W. H. Heckman, president of the Ohio Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, will lecture at their church on North Sixth street, Sunday evening.

W. H. HECKMAN.

At 7:30, Mr. Heckman was called to the presidency of the Ohio Conference from Trenton, N. J. He has lectured in many of the large cities of the east and south.

The progress made by the Adventists is shown in the reports from the churches. There have been 233 members added to the churches in the first nine months of 1919. Their gifts to foreign missions average 38 cents per capita per week during these months while they have paid into the treasury for the work at home a little more than $1 per week per member.

The Adventists at a recent council held at Boulder, Colo., set a goal of 50 cents per week per member for 1920, and made a call for 200 trained workers to be sent to mission fields next year.

The reason for this activity will be given when Mr. Heckman discusses his subject, "Why I Am a Seventh Day Adventist."
